SERVICES

Your business has a mind of its own. Let me help you know what it has to say.

Intuition can be used to access the innate intelligence of your business for optimum direction, best decisions, and solutions to challenges. Illuminating clear, focused action it provides a powerful business advantage to grow your business, serve more people and make more money.

Susan Rueppel, Ph.D., Chief Intuition Officer™ is an international Business Intuitive, author, speaker and trainer who shows entrepreneurs, business owners and corporate professionals how to grow their business. She supports clients in expanding their vision, gaining clarity, focus and confidence through specific strategies and a practical, prioritized path forward.

Susan blends her 20 years as a professional intuitive with her business acumen from 20+ years in corporate America to provide immediate answers for tangible results in business. She makes intuition practical and accessible for powerful results in all areas of business and life. She is also co-author of the book Entrepreneur Extraordinaire.

Client feedback: "Increased profits, new services, and laser-targeted branding are just a few of the benefits that have come from working with Susan. She revealed insights on rebranding and repackaging my existing services and new potential markets to focus on...providing more comprehensive and value-based service packages for my clients. This one insight doubled my income in one year!" ~ Tania vonAllmen

Susan has a private practice in Sacramento, California and internationally by Skype offering Intuitive Business Accelerator services, group programs and training. See her web site www.ChiefIntuitionOfficer.com

PHILOSOPHY

"It's important to use all the resources at our disposal to create businesses where we can express our purpose and passions, serve many people, and create abundant income. It's time we recognize and activate our innate human potential of intuition and apply it to business in focused ways to see our path clearly, and more easily turn possibilities into reality."
